

YERKES AND VICTORY.

Kentuckians of the Anti-Goebelism Type Are Enthusiastic.

OF ONE MIND ABOUT THE RESULT.

John W. Yerkes Now the Most Popular Man in Kentucky.

There is no doubt that the announcement of John W. Yerkes for Governor has met the widest and most hearty approval throughout Kentucky. Republicans and independent Democrats, in truth the anti-Goebelism members of all political parties, are rejoiced and enthusiastic at the announcement of this big, brainy, clean, strong man who is to stand in the lead of the great army of civil liberty through the campaign of 1900. Nothing but expressions of approval and endorsement have been heard or quoted. There will be no opposition, and when the great nominating convention is held to choose the standard bearer for honest elections and civil liberty, John W. Yerkes will be chosen by acclamation with that unanimity of feeling that is already making the Goebel forces of force and fraud to quake.

The Louisville Commercial, interviewed some leading citizens of Louisville as to Mr. Yerkes' candidacy. These expressions are typical of the feeling here throughout Kentucky. Some of these follow:

Hon. John Marshall, who was elected lieutenant-governor on the Republican ticket last fall, but whose office was stolen from him by the better acquainted with Mr. Yerkes than any other person in Louisville. He knew him when as young men they were both students at Centre college at Danville. Mr. Yerkes was the master of ceremonies when Mr. Marshall was initiated into one of the college secret societies, and the acquaintance made there soon ripened into friendship. In speaking of his friend yesterday, Mr. Marshall said:

"I have known Mr. Yerkes for a great number of years and he is a fine fellow. He is really he is very attractive. A tough gentleman and a fine conversationalist."

"He is unique, hardly one of the best lawyers in the State and is thoroughly equipped to fill the governorship with honor to himself and credit to his party. He is undoubtedly the strongest candidate that could have been put out by the Republicans."

Hon. Arthur Wallace, Secretary of the Brown Democratic committee: "I have known Hon. John W. Yerkes for fifteen years. He is a gentleman in the best sense of the word, a lawyer of first-class ability, and I think, the best timber the Republican party has for Governor."

Hon. W. C. Owens, former Congressman in the Ashland district: "I think he'll be a splendid man to nominate. His majority will be too big for the returning board or the legislature to steal."

Hon. J. T. O'Neal of the Brown Democratic committee: "He is a clean man who commands the confidence of everybody and who is recognized everywhere as a thorough gentleman."

Attorney R. E. Woods: "I think no man in Kentucky could make a better race than Yerkes. I am a great friend and admirer. He is a man to call out the enthusiasm and support of all classes of citizens. He is a typical Kentuckian and an able man. I think he will win with ease."

Attorney Albert S. White, colored: "You can just say that the colored voters will be in line for Yerkes. They recognize him, as do all other Republicans, as the most available and logical man for the nomination. They are especially for him as they realize we need a true and thorough campaigner who can present the issues of the local campaign and not only keep in line the anti-Goebel element, but also win new converts."

ernor. I believe his majority will be in the neighborhood of 20,000. I think Louisville alone will give 15,000 majority. These are conservative estimates."

Attorney R. C. Klinead: "I think Mr. Yerkes is one of the most representative men in the State of Kentucky and I believe he will get practically every Republican and anti-Goebel vote in the State. He ought to be elected by 20,000 majority. He'll run very little behind McKinley in Louisville, and I think the majority in this county will be somewhere from 10,000 to 12,000."

Attorney R. Lee Page, Goebel Democrat and secretary of the Weaver Bandana club: "He's much too strong a man for the Republicans to nominate to suit me."

W. A. Evans: "He is the most popular candidate the Republican party can nominate."

A. K. Russell, a converted Democrat: "He's the great man. I think he's the most popular man in the State."

Kentucky Crops.

The condition of wheat has declined from 100 on May 1st to 89 June 1st. The decline is due mainly to ravages of Hessian fly, although some damage is attributed to the dry weather prevailing during May. Some complaint is made of short heading, and where growth was rank it is badly lodged and tangled. It is estimated that 17 per cent. of the acreage has been injured by Hessian fly.

CORN. The condition of corn crop averages 93 per cent. in June. Much of it is uneven on account of damage from cut worms, but the cultivation is good, and the late planting is coming forward nicely.

THE AVERAGE is large, the estimate being 103 as compared with average of last year.

WHEAT. The condition of oat crop June 1st was 91 compared with average years. The dry weather has prevented much growth, but the copious rains at close of month may be expected to remedy this.

TOBACCO. The weather has favored the proposed large acreage of tobacco. Seventy-three per cent. of crop was set prior to June 1st, which is much more than the normal amount. The plants, though small, are starting nicely and prospect is very bright at the inception of the season.

J. W. THROCKMORTON, Commissioner of Agriculture. June 1, 1900.

Motion to Advance Cases. Frankfort, Ky., June 12.—In the Court of Appeals this morning Judge Pryor, representing Attorney General Breckinridge, who is detained in Danville by illness in his family, filed notice that he would move to set aside the order of the court, continuing the minor State office cases till September, and also move to discharge the supersedeas and to advance for hearing at once.

Affidavits of State Inspector Hines and others, showing the State's interests were suffering by delay in deciding the cases, were filed. The court directed the motions to be filed and submitted. No one was present for the Republicans to object to the motions.

Mrs. Littlefield Dead. Mrs. Wesley Littlefield died at her home in Mortons Gap last Saturday of consumption. She had been a sufferer for a long time and her death was not unexpected. Mrs. Littlefield was a member of the Methodist Church and was a consistent Christian. The remains were taken to Hopkinsville for burial Sunday.

GOV. TAYLOR'S STATEMENT.

Reasons Why He Declines to be Candidate for Republican Nomination.

Louisville, Ky., June 8.—W. S. Taylor sent to the Evening Post from Indianapolis the following statement, in which he declines to be a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor:

To the Republicans of Kentucky: At one time I thought, and so announced, that if the Republican nomination for Governor were tendered to me I should not feel authorized to decline.

But after mature consideration of all interest involved in the contest for civil liberty, and of my duty to myself and my family for whom I must provide, I feel that I should ask at your hands relief from the exaction which a nomination would impose.

For ten long months I have borne as best I could the burdens which have attended this great struggle. How much I have endured for freedom's sake few will ever know. In spite of all this, the will of the people has been overthrown and I have not only been robbed, but sub-

STEAM COAL RATE UPHELD.

Court of Appeals Decides Railroads Can Make Concessions.

Frankfort, Ky., June 7.—The L. & N. railroad won an important case in the Court of Appeals today by one vote. The cases are from Marion county, involving the legality of an indictment for unjust discrimination in freight rates. Judge Paynter delivered a dissenting opinion, in which Judges Guffy and White concurred.

The majority of the court holds that where the railroad company ships wheat to a mill and flour from the mill, it is not a discrimination to charge the mill-owner a less rate to haul his fuel than other people in the same town, and that it is not a violation of the constitutional section which prohibits discrimination in rates.

The dissenting opinion, in effect, holds that it is not discrimination to ship fuel for a less rate under the circumstances in this case, then the constitutional section is invalid for the purposes it was intended.

jected to a merciless political persecution.

BALLOT MUST BE REMEMBERED. The coming campaign is one of profound importance to Kentucky. The ballot must be remembered. The victory won last fall must again be won and the theft perpetrated by the General Assembly fittingly condemned.

Our only possible redress must come through an appeal to the people. The campaign must be an active, aggressive one. No point should be neglected. Every friend of the sacred cause of human rights should be enlisted.

To the end that the people should be successfully made, you should select for your candidates one who may devote all his time and energies to the prosecution of the canvass. In the light of these considerations, it is, therefore, manifest that some other than myself should be your standard bearer.

When I can not longer be your leader in the great battle, yet I shall gladly render whatever assistance may be within my power, for I love liberty none the less because of what I have suffered for her sake.

Harpers Weekly on Taylor.

Mr. W. S. Taylor, lately Governor of Kentucky, is reported to be much broken in health as the result of his experiences since his election. He seems fairly entitled to a large measure of public sympathy. Beyond question he was elected Governor of Kentucky. He assumed the office and held it until the courts decided that under the iniquitous Goebel law the Democratic legislature had lawfully conferred his office upon his rival. Then, submitting to the court's decree, he abdicated, and left the State to avoid arrest and trial for usurpation, the murder of Goebel, or any other charge his Democratic opponents might find it expedient to bring against him. He has said that he dared not take the chance of getting justice from the Kentucky courts, and his reluctance to face them seems reasonable. Meanwhile, for the time being, he is an exile from his home, broken in health, impoverished and distressed, a victim of political rascality with which he could not contend except by stirring up civil war. He has done well to accept the decision of the courts and retire, but in due time and somehow Republican government in Kentucky must be restored, and the will of the people must rule again.

COMMITTEES AT WORK.

Masonic Picnic Now in Hands of Committees For Various Departments.

ENCOURAGING REPORTS OF ATTENDANCE.

There Will Be a Mammoth Parade of Masons at Nine O'Clock.

Reports are being received from all sides of the most encouraging character as to attendance at the big Masonic picnic and barbecue to given at Lakeside Park, Earlinton, Saturday, June 23.

Special invitations have been sent out to every lodge in Hopkins and adjoining counties and every Mason in Hopkins county and quite a number outside of the county have been given an individual and personal invitation. The people say they are coming—a multitude—and the picnic management and the people of Earlinton are arranging to entertain the big crowd that now seems certain. It looks as if only bad weather could prevent their coming, and all believe the rains will cease before that date.

The speaking will all be in the morning, beginning upon the arrival of the procession. Mr. James R. Rash will deliver the welcome address and will introduce the speakers. All speeches will be short and spicy and no tiresome length of time will be so devoted. The committee on speaking is doing its best to get an attractive list and the names will soon be announced.

Masonic headquarters will be established on the grounds and will be in personal charge of Jesse Phillips, Master of E. W. Turner Lodge. The register for visiting Masons will be here, and the handsome silver set of officers' jewels that has been offered to the lodge having the largest attendance, mileage considered, as set out in the invitations to each lodge. Provision will also be made to check parcels of headquarters, and every possible arrangement made for their comfort.

The people of Earlinton are giving liberal assistance to the committee on supplies. All recognize the public spirit of the enterprise and endorse the movement to increase the fund for building the new Masonic Temple and Opera House which it is proposed to erect here this year.

The Committees are as follows: REPRESENTATIVE COMMITTEE.

H. C. Bourland, chairman of this committee, has divided his committee as follows: DINNER—Dan. M. Evans, E. L. Stokes, Thos. Longstaff, J. B. Head, W. A. Tombs, Thos. R. Howell, F. B. Arnold, Leo Oldham.

UNION LABOR

Will Not Be Employed Again By the Seebree Coal Company.

The Seebree Coal Company, of Seebree, Ky., has issued its final ultimatum in reference to Union labor, through the unreasonableness of which that company has been idle for months.

The union men have been making threats there, as elsewhere in this coal field, and the Seebree company declares that "the mines will never be run by union labor." The card in full is as follows:

To the business men and citizens of Seebree and vicinity:

Since the Union men are loitering on the road between town and the coal mines making threats and trying to intimidate all who offer to work, we have this to say, our pay roll was from two to three thousand dollars per month, besides the other things brought to town in consequence. Now if you appreciate this as worth your consideration, we ask and expect your support and influence at this time, as the mines will never be run by union labor, that much is now settled, once for all.

J. A. POWELL, J. B. RAMSEY, H. C. BAILEY, S. F. POWELL.

Plant Burned By Firebugs.

Paducah, Ky., June 9.—The stove and heading factory of T. C. Seaman was burned early this morning. Incendiarism is charged, the watchman declaring two men were seen leaving the place at whom he shot twice. The plant was valued at $25,000, with insurance for $15,000.

Seventy-five employees lost work. It is the second time the factory burned since it was established a few years ago.

Jerry Nunley, of Nebo, was in our town Tuesday.

DOWN IN THE MINES.

The rule or rule policy of the U. M. W. is again being applied by their action in Eastern Kentucky, where they have called out their men because the Whitley Coal Company is operating its mine with non-union labor. Their object seems to be to cripple even their friends who have surrendered all rights to them before they will work in a district where a mine is operated by men of independence. Little do they seem to care about the suffering their acts will cause innocent women and children if they can only place the gang of dictators in charge. With plenty of blackberries and forty-five cents per week to each family, they imagine they can see pleasure and luxuries ahead. Before taking such a step they should take a look to the South-west, where in Arkansas they have placed a large number on the starvation list, and a glance at the idlers around Barnsley should teach them an impressive lesson and the crime of such a move.

A very forcible lesson has lately been taught the agitators up in Eastern Kentucky. They are up there where they are wherever they gain a foothold, very insolent, and we might say ignorant of their rights under the laws of the State. They not only refused to abide by the rules of the coal company they were working for, but after they were told their services were not longer required, and that they were occupying by them were needed for not willing to work under the instructions of their employers, they refused to vacate. Then it was that the Whitley Coal Company concluded to test its rights before the courts and the trespassers were ordered to vacate in three days' time. This they refused to do, and they were then ejected by force, and after a trial by jury as to their right to do this upon receipt of a notice, the action of the company was upheld. The action of the agitators in this case again illustrates the character of their organization, that of the U. M. W. They not only refuse to dictate terms to their employers but in their power to take charge of you, property by force if their terms are rejected.

Superintendent Salmon, of the Crabtree mine, accompanied by his wife, like all others in Hopkins county, continues to run steadily.

Mechanical Engineer D. W. Unstead was busily engaged last week in putting up a new engine at the Arnold mine.

The presence of an agitator in the vicinity of Oakhill mine, with a shot gun in his hand last week, did not have the desired effect, intended by the idlers. Work at the mine continued without much interruption, and one seemed to have grown suddenly old through fright. The operators at that mine gave their employees every reasonable chance to redeem themselves by going to work, but showing a desire to will operate the mine or dictate the terms upon which it should run. The mine owners naturally showed some anger and as their action since indicate, because determined that regardless of the whims of a few agitators, the mine must be operated, hence their action in putting in machinery. The foot agitator who even masters up to this point through the efforts of intoxicants to carry a gun with the hopes that some timid men may become their followers, will find to his sorrow, that the business of the country cannot be trifled with and if necessary requires it, they will be met with winchesters and given a warm reception.

Superintendent Harris, of the South Diamond mine, made Earlington a business trip this week, as business at that mine still continues good, he has but little time that he can leave.

It was indeed a pleasure to see the St. Charles miners going themselves at the picnic given there last Saturday. Steady work for the past two years without rest except Sunday, makes them appreciate a day of recreation.

Mr. Newbold, the St. Bernard coal agent at Louisville, spent several days here lately as a guest of Mr. J. B. Atkinson's.

When the St. Charles miner was questioned about their attending the St. John's day picnic, he was held at Earlington on June the 23d, they expressed a desire to attend, but said work was so good there, that a day of rest was hard to get.

Secretary Bailey in a laughing manner said one day last week, "The United Mine Workers will call out our force on the 10th of June," and as that date fell on Sunday, of course the miners were out, but to their credit it must be said that they were found at their post of duty, and the agitators found still holding the same.

A portion of the following clip-ful owners—the Crabtree roll that attached closely to his person as he rolled in the mud. Tom rode his mule off in the rain, and not a better man. He found Crabtree, a bad place in which to preach starvation on 42 cents per week. After years of constant insults and bullying by the U. M. W., the idlers of Hopkins county are not in the least to be led by the nose by such wily cranks as Tom Cates, Jim Wood, Ed Lohan, John Tate and Doc Smith & Company.

Some of the Oak Hill strikers for the privilege of knocking mules eyes out at their pleasure have gotten tired of living on promises and dirty molasses and have gone into the to-be-had business. They are not ordering labor made suits any more.

Sheriff Rodgers, of Oak Hill went hunting the other day for the chaps who proposed to "kill two or three of the Oak Hill men" now at work in freedom and "scare the rest." It is needless to say that the Sheriff didn't find the game, neither did the gang that left Morgans Gap about the same time with short guns in their hands. Dick Mersey's oft repeated remark "there will be a— to pay in Hopkins county," so far applies only to Dick and his constant attacks on the saloon's contents. What beautiful examples of "brotherhood" do the members of the U. M. W. furnish the world. Only a wayfarer and a fool could be taken in by them. Even saloon keepers at Central City with his uncollected drink bills due by U. M. W. show more brotherhood than does this order.

The produce of a coal seam five feet thick is 4,000 tons per acre, and taking this as an average "thickness" the area of coal annually worked amounts to nearly 33,000 acres, or four times the area of the county of London. With this rapid rate of consumption anxiety as to the duration of the British coal fields is founded. Professor Hall estimates that the total quantity of coal within a depth of 4,000 feet still remaining is 1,888,000,000 tons. This estimate is reassuring, although it is not in accord with the less optimistic and divergent views on the question expressed by Professor Stanley Jevons, by the Right Honorable Leonard H. Courtney, by Mr. R. Price-Wynn and by Mr. T. Foster Brown. All these estimates are of slight value owing to the impossibility of prophesying either the rate of increase in production and consumption, or the limits at which mining may be carried on with profit. Early in the last century a shaft 100 feet in depth was an object of wonder, and the advance of the history of the coal pits hitherto attained clearly shows the remarkably rapid progress that has been made in this respect. At the present time the greatest depth at which Great Britain mining operations are carried on has been reached at the Pendleton Colliery, near Manchester, where the deepest workings are nearly 3,500 feet below the surface.

This enormous depth has, however, been exceeded in other countries, notably in the Lake Superior district, where the Red Jacket shaft of the Calumet and Hecla copper mines has now attained the record depth of 4,900 feet; and in Belgium, where a colliery at Mons is 3,007 feet deep. Depths such as these show that the limit of depth of 4,000 feet adopted by Professor Hall and by the Royal Coal Commission in 1870, though ridiculed at the time, was well within the bounds of possibility. In view of the marvelous efficacy of modern winding engines, and the considerations of a mechanical nature need limit the prospective depths of shafts. By far the most important obstacle to very deep mining is the certain and proportionate increase of temperature according to depth. At the Parushowitz bore hole, in Silesia, the deepest in the world, recently put down by the Prussian government to a depth of 6,572 feet, this increase of temperature with depth has been found to be 1 degree Fahrenheit for 62.1 feet. Taking this as a fair average a coal seam at a depth of 4,000 feet would be, without the cooling action of an artificial ventilating current, 62 degrees warmer than ground near the surface.—The Nineteenth Century.

New York, June 11.—A. M. Quarrier, Second Vice President of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Co., died at his residence in this city today. He had been ill for some time with a complication of diseases. Mr. Quarrier was prominent in railway and financial circles, and, in addition to his position with the L. & N., he was vice president and treasurer of the American Pig Iron Storage Company, president of the Henderson Bridge Company, and vice president of the Nashville, Florence & Sheffield Railroad Company.

Things Which No Money Can Buy. Fewer last than in any sense, in any respect, despite the poor man because of his poverty. Ever since Jesus Christ lived in a poor man's home and worked at the carpenter's trade the poor man's house has been a sacred place and the laboring man's vocation a sacred thing. The early life of the Son of Man has illumined and glorified the plain and homely things of human life. A man's house may be a very humble one. There may be no carpet on the floor, the furniture may be plain, the food may be simple and scanty, but there may dwell a glory there which shall cause the plainest and poorest things to shine with a radiance as from heaven. Things may be there more precious than any that can be purchased at the furniture dealer's or at the clothier's. Peace, contentment, kindness, affection, may be there—things which no money can buy—Christian Intelligence.

Is an Enemy's Country. "We're in an enemy's country, Satan is the god of this world. He claims to own it and to distribute his prizes among his subjects. He blinds men's eyes and blinds away human hearts. Jesus Christ seeks to gather out of the world in which he holds such sway a peculiar flock, a remnant of good works. They are beset on every hand with perils and temptations. Satan is not averted from sin and its consequences, to be on their guard as they travel onward to a better country. Grace is promised them all along the way, and they are safe only as they keep close to their Saviour and in the path of duty and holiness marked out for us in an evering Guide—Presbyterian.

Do Your Part. If you want your church to prosper, be faithful in doing your part. Seek out nonchurchgoers and invite them to come to church with you. Notify your pastor of any who would be glad to receive a call from him. Be regular in your attendance at all the services of the church.—Christian Instructor.

Christ's Yearning For Souls. As Christ's life on earth is studied nothing else comes to a deeper impression than His ardent, ceaseless, tender longing for the salvation of men's souls, and not only that they might be saved from sin and its consequences, but also that they might learn to appreciate their wonderful powers and opportunities and to do justice to themselves and to enter into that rich and blessed experience which only the redeemed can know. Something of this longing for souls is visible in every true Christian. It is more evident some than in others, even when equally intense, because of differences in temperament. But Jesus it was supreme both because of the absolute, flawless righteousness of His own character, the ineffable purity and holiness of His own soul and also because He knew, as no other man ever has known or can know, what a human soul actually is and can become.—Congregationalist.

Does It Pay to Buy Cheap. A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of a long running trouble. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more reliable dealer. Yes, if possible, if it does not for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been found to be successful in all climates with success in severe throat and lung troubles. Get the German Syrup. It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but it soothes the inflamed, raw and excoriated parts, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended twenty years by all druggists in the world. For sale by dealers in all civilized countries.

The Fourth of July Picnic. The Ancient Order United Workmen are completing their plans for the 4th of July picnic at Lakeside Park. There will be a number of good speeches, plenty of refreshments, and a fine fireworks display. The picnic on the Fourth have all been enjoyable, but the one this year bids fair to eclipse all previous ones. Lakeside Park is an ideal place for entertainments of this sort.

Railroad Discontinued. The Commercial says: "Those politicians who have been fighting railroad bills can get away from them completely by running to either Bloomfield or Taylorsville. The road from those two towns to Shelbyville will be operated for the last time this morning unless the bondholders can make some arrangements by which it will be operated in the future. Primitive stage coaches will again be put into service from the two towns and communication with the outer world will be kept up in this way. The stoppage of the branch road will shut the two little towns off almost as completely from the outer world as the eruption of Vesuvius years ago did Pompeii. Business will deal a severe blow and property will sadly deteriorate in value."

Success—North Knowing. Forty years' success in the South proves Hughes' Tonic a great remedy for Chills and all Malaria Fevers. It cures the most dangerous cases. Try it. At druggists. 50c and $1.00 bottles.

Let Their Hatchet. The parties who broke into the St. Bernard butcher shop Sunday night and emptied the cash drawer of its contents, were kind enough to leave their hatchet in the shop. The hatchet is an old looking one with a claw nail puller and a notched handle. There is a letter "C" on one side and "G" and "J" on the other. One of the corners is slightly bent. Mr. McCarty says the owner may have his property if he will call at the butcher shop and identify it.

THURSDAY, JUNE 14, 1906.

HAVING won the governorship with loaded dice the de facto, pro tem Governor is rewarding with fat places the fellows who "fixed" the dice. But there is a day of reckoning.

The figures made by the people of Kentucky last November and certified to by the Democratic Board are more potent than the once charmed numbers of the Chicago platform wheel of fortune—16 to 1.

KENTUCKY Goebelized Democratic conventions generally remembered the Chicago platform and 16 to 1 but tried very hard to forget those more recent and more pregnant figures of Taylor, 193,714; Goebel, 191,331.

JOHN W. YERKES is the best man the Republicans could possibly nominate for Governor. He is a gentleman and a scholar and will prove a world heater in the race this fall. We have always been for Yerkes and we all will, by unanimous action of the State Convention of Louisville in July, have the chance to vote for him.

The Goebelized Democratic convention of today at Louisville to select delegates to the national convention at Kansas City will meet in "Music Hall" and remind itself of the power of force and fraud and hug to its complacent bosom the laurels won thereby—whether those who attend are all original Goebel men, or having sworn never to be accounted in that column, have since been won over by promise of office or preferment.

The terrified Goebelized Democracy in convention assembled at Madisonville Saturday—terrified at the "rise again" habit of "truth crushed to earth"—declared:

We are opposed to a government of plunder and pelf and assassination, and reaffirm our allegiance to that character of government which will secure to us the blessings of liberty and afford the greatest good to the greatest number, ever remembering that in a free republic majorities must rule.

Apparently these resolvers have forgotten that the people remember that there was an election held last November, at which W. S. Taylor received 193,714 votes, and William Goebel 191,331, and that this vote was certified to by a Goebel Democratic board.

The admission that "majorities must rule" is true, and there are enough liberty-loving, independent Democrats who are above purchase by the Goebel machine, through the promise of office or gain, to make sure beyond the machine's power to steal the election of John W. Yerkes for Governor—the man who will receive the heartiest endorsement of the allied forces of Civil Liberty.

POLITICAL POINTS.

Mr. C. E. Sapp has been appointed chairman of the new Republican city and county executive committee for Louisville and Jefferson county.

Small attendance was the rule at the Goebel conventions held in every county in the State Saturday.

A Democrat of the high order known as "independent," who has always been a leader, said since the announcement of Jno.

DONNELLY SEES DEMOCRACY'S END.

"Bryan in 1896 was nearer the presidency than he ever will be again. The old ramshackle, rotten Democracy is now fast on its way to the political bone yard, and it will have no help from the Populists this year." (Great cheers.) Ignatius Donnelly, Cincinnati Populist Tribune.

W. Yerkes for governor, on the Republican ticket, "The Goebelites will have to shuffle their cards nightly carefully if they beat him."

The Republican minor state officers will hold on to the end and await the final determination of the courts.

It is rumored that five indictments were found by the Federal grand jury at Owensboro last week for intimidation of negro voters in Christian county.

While Gov. Beckham is pardoning fugitives he should be cautioned not to inadvertently insert Taylor's name in any of the documents.—Hopkinsville New Era.

Gen. Collier, who was spoken of as a probable candidate for governor will not run but will support Mr. Yerkes.

The Hopkinsville City Council declines to recognize Gov. Beckham's appointment of the Rev. George F. Campbell as Police Judge of that city and will elect a man to fill the vacancy.

A fire eater from Kentucky, in search of H. D. Allen, from this state, who is of course an ardent Democrat, through a mistake of the doorkeeper of the House was ushered into the presence of Amos L. Allen, of Maine, Mr. Reed's successor, and a zealous Republican. The visitor went simply to pay his respects, and after an agreeable conversation lasting a few moments, took his leave.

"I tell you so," he said later to one of his cronies, "our Allen is a fine fellow. He ain't got any airs 'bout him whatsoever, but by George, if he don't talk just like a blasted Yank. Ain't got any of the Bluegrass lingo."

His friend explained to him that it was without doubt the Maine Allen whom he had interviewed, and the Kentuckian verified this suggestion later on.

"But all I've got to say," he announced later in telling the story, "is that them Republicans ain't as black as they're painted."

The presiding officer of the Republican National Convention at Philadelphia will use a gavel composed of wood gathered from historic places in every State and Territory in the Union. Survivor of the Port of C. M. Barnett has been asked to contribute a piece of dogwood from the farm near Hodgenville, where President Abraham Lincoln was born.

Gov. Simon Bolivar Buckner has gone to New York, and will sail soon for a trip abroad, to extend to the middle of October.

SENATOR LINDSAY says that any Republican candidate of high character, who should be disassociated from the late violent troubles in Kentucky, would be elected Governor next November.

by 25,000 majority over Beckham or any other Goebelite.

The morning Goebel organ proudly remarks that five Brown Democrats attended the county convention at Bowling Green. According to the signatures to that petition against Goebel this leaves 1,235 Democrats who did not attend.—Commercial.

Question Answered.

Yes, August Flower still is the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration, or Heart Failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stay fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling full and bad with indigestion and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by St. Bernard Drug Store.

Backache should never be neglected. It means kidney disease which, if allowed to run too long, may result in Bright's disease, diabetes or other serious and often fatal complaints. Foley's Kidney Cure makes the kidneys well. Take nothing else.

There are Others.

James B. Ireland, of Hancock county, Ky., celebrated his 63rd birthday five years ago, and last Monday he celebrated his 68th, at the time in good health, active and of clear mind. The wonder is how anybody can manage to live so long in Kentucky.—Minneapolis Tribune.

A young man seems to be willing to make almost any sacrifice for the girl he loves except to go home early and save her from a scolding next morning.

FATAL mistakes are made by those who do not heed the earlier symptoms of kidney or bladder trouble that often end in Bright's disease or diabetes. When Foley's Kidney Cure makes the kidneys well, how foolish it is to delay.

If you want a man's bill will loan him money whenever he asks it and dun him whenever you need it.

LOCAL NEWS.

Carroll Bourland is the latest addition to our force of typists. Cal is an apt pupil, learning fast and will soon be a full-fledged printer.

The recent heavy rains left some of our Hopkins County roads in a bad shape, but it is hoped that with a few days of wet weather they will be all right again.

A Fatal Explosion.

The Henderson Glenner says: At Addison, a station on the L., St. L. and H. railway, a few miles distant from Cloverport, Friday morning about 10 o'clock, the steam boilers, two or three in number let go and made kindling wood of a great part of the mill. The destroyed property consisted of a distillery and saw mill combined, operated and owned by Anderson & Klein. One young man, Tom Parley, a brother of a brakeman in the employ of the L., St. L. and H. railway, was killed.

Successful Small Fruit Grower.

Rev. J. P. Story, Hopkins county's successful grower of fine strawberries, has had a very satisfactory season now just closed. The crop this year was very fine and Mr. Story put on the market very choice fruit. The crop was not so large but brought better prices than that of last year. Mr. Story sold $68 worth of strawberries this year. His market at home, Madisonville and Earlington, was good, and he had constant orders from two leading grocers at Henderson. He has put out more plants this spring and will further increase his acreage next year. He expects also to grow raspberries in the future and will find a good market for this delightful small fruit, of which there is always a scarcity hereabouts.

Dinner at Barsley.

The local news-gatherer is under obligations to Chas McFadden for a kind invitation to a dinner at Barsley last Sunday, and is sorry that it was impossible for him to be present. McFadden knows just how to entertain people in the true old Kentucky style. This dinner was given in honor of the Barsley miners, who stood to their posts and turned their backs on the union.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular, free.

Conventions and Conventions.

Of Conventions there is no end. All kinds of organizations now hold conventions. From time to time conventions held by a single wholesale concern for the benefit of their salesmen, to the great religious and political conventions, nearly every profession and trade has its meeting to talk over things of mutual interest. The Sunday-school work, through its various township, county, State and International organizations, holds thousands of conventions every year, which bring together persons far and near to discuss plans for improving and uplifting the great Sunday-school work of this country. Their value is becoming more and more apparent every day. People must get together and learn of each other if they would advance.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

LESSON XII, SECOND QUARTER, INTER-
NATIONAL SERIES, JOHN 17.Text of the Lesson, John 17, 5-24.
Memory Verses, 11-12-Golden Text,
Matth. 6: 11-Commensary Prepared by the Rev. D. B. Henshaw.

(Copyright, 1921, by D. B. Henshaw.)

5. "When Jesus thus lifted up His eyes and saw a great company of people about Him, He said unto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread that these may eat?" This was across the sea, where Jesus went with His disciples after the death of John that they might find some rest (Mark vi: 31, 32). But the people followed on foot, around the lake, and Jesus received them and spoke unto them of the kingdom of God and healed them that had need of healing (Luke ix, 11). Toward evening the disciples asked Jesus to send the people away into the towns and country roundabout to lodge and get victuals, for it was a desert place, but Jesus said, "Give ye them to eat" (Luke ix, 12, 13). Then Jesus asked Philip the question of this first verse of our lesson.

6. "And this He said to prove him, for He himself knew what He would do." He always knows what He will do, and how He will do it and when and where, for "known unto God are all the works, from the beginning of the world" (Acts xv, 28). When He allows us to come to a place where it looks as if certain things must be done, but we see no possible way of doing them, He is governing us as He did Philip, to see whether we will in our helplessness cast ourselves upon Him or attempt to work it out in our own way or wisdom or strength. Those who will not rely upon Him will allow to go their own way, but wherever there is a heart wholly toward Him, He will show Himself strong for their help at that one.

7. "Philip answered Him, Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them that every one of us may take a little." This was about equal to saying, "I cannot do this, for we have not 200 pennies, and if we had, we could not buy the bread?" Ah, Philip, why did you think of that? He had been bread with the Bread of Life from heaven right beside of you? Why did you not say, "O Lord, Thou hast said, 'I will do what I will' with manna! Thou didst give them water from the rock and divide the Red sea and dry the Jordan! From These alone can bread come for these thousands!"

8. "There is a lad here which hath five barley loaves and two small fishes, but what are they among so many?" This was Andrew's view of the case. Philip saw a great mountain, a difficulty that could not be overcome, and he despised the small material. Andrew was at hand (Luke ix, 7, 10), and Andrew considered Jesus as God, and he knew in them we may see ourselves as in a glass, for do we not often consider the much or little we have to do with and the work to be done rather than Him with whom we are laborers.

9. "Philip said, 'Make me see how thou dost it.' So the 5,000 sat down upon the green grass in flocks by hundreds and by fifties (Mark vi, 23, 40). Many had been tried and found wanting, and now see God working! And first there must be stillness and order. He says, 'I am the Lord, and know that I am God.' 'I am the Lord, and there is none else like me, there is no God beside Me.' 'I will work, and who shall hinder it?' (Isa. xli, 20; Isa. xlv, 5; still, 13). One of the beautiful things in the first two chapters in the Bible is that God is seen working, and there is no hindrance. The Spirit moves, God speaks, and all come to pass just as He says.

10. "And Jesus took the loaves, and when He had given thanks He distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that sat down, and likewise of the fishes as much as they would." Mark vi, 41, says, "At He looked up to heaven and blessed and broke the loaves, it is also so written in Matthew and Luke, for this miracle is recorded in each of the four gospels, and it is the only one that is found in all teaching us, I think, among other things, that the great work of saved people is to give the hungry the bread of life, not considering mountains of difficulty, nor despising small material to work with, but place all we have in Jesus' hands and let Him use us to His glory.

11. "When they were filled, He said unto His disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost." Philip's 200 pennies might have given every one a little, but the Lord's way is to fill to satisfy. The tabernacle and the temple were filled with His glory (Ex. xli, 34; 2 Kings vi, 10, 11). The whole earth is yet to be filled with His glory (Isa. xl, 5; Num. xiv, 21; Hab. ii, 14). Believers should be filled with the Spirit, filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God (Eph. v, 19; Phil. i, 11); filled with all the fullness of God (Eph. iii, 19). Christ dwelling in us. Then notice the fragments gathered that none may be lost. Yet some think that He who would have none of this food lost will perhaps suffer some of His redeemed to be lost.

12. "Filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves." That would be a basket for each of the twelve apostles. It seemed easier to send the multitude away than that they might provide for themselves. That is the common way. Get rid of them, get rid of all thought of responsibility concerning them if you possibly can. But He it is whom we must give an account of our stewardship says, "Give ye them to eat?" In this connection let us remember I Cor. xii, 12. He does not ask us to provide or to plan anything in this great work, for it is His from beginning to end. He asks us to receive from His hand and pass on that which He gives us.

13. "This is of a truth that prophet that should come into the world." Thus they speak when they saw the miracle and they would take Him by force and make Him a king (verse 10), for one who could heal all the diseases and thus feed them when hungry would seem to them to be a desirable king. They would look nothing (Luke xxi, 33). They thought only of temporal things, but He taught them to labor not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life (verse 27), and He said that this nation would be given to them and that the one great work required of them was to believe on the Son of God—that they receive Him by receiving His word (verse 23; chapter 12; xvi, 8).

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Topic For the Week Beginning June 17—Comment by Rev. S. H. Doyle.

Text—John 17: 1-13.

In all probability it was while walking up the Mount of Olives to the garden of Gethsemane that Jesus spoke this discourse on the vine and the branches.

The vineyard on the slope of Olivet would naturally suggest this discourse on the vine and the branches. The vineyard on the slope of Olivet would naturally suggest this discourse on the vine and the branches. Christ is the vine, the Father the husbandman. Christian people the branches and Christian life and works the fruit to be born. And all depends upon union between Christ and the Christian. We must abide in Him and He in us, as the branch abides in the vine. Union with Christ is a real union. The branch actually abides in the vine. It has a vital living union with it. The union between Christ and His disciple is no less real. We abide in Him, and He abides in us. We abide in Him by faith. He abides in us by His Holy Spirit, but the union is no less vital and real. We actually abide in Him and receive our life from Him, as the branch abides in the vine and receives its life from it. "It is no longer I that live, but Christ who lives in me," says the great apostle, "but Christ lives in me." This is the ideal relation between Christ and His disciples, and it is no imaginary, mythical relation, but a real, vital union.

With Christ as a necessity. It is necessary if we are to bear fruit, the object of Christianity. "Abide in Me and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself except it abide in the vine, no more can you except ye abide in Me." The life and fruitfulness of the branch depend upon its union with the vine. So it is with the Christian. Apart from Christ he can do nothing. He depends absolutely upon Christ for power to live aright and to do what Christ would have him do. As Christians we want to live Christian lives and to bear Christian fruit. Let us therefore remember that these results can only be accomplished by abiding in Christ.

Manus with Christ means spiritual death and destruction. The branch that has no living connection with the vine and hence bears no fruit in one year and is burned. This is the spiritual world, the penalty of disunion with Christ. Spiritual death awaits the man who abides not in Christ. He is cast forth—forth into outer darkness—away from God, away from heaven. Let us earnestly strive to avoid such a fate. Let us abide in Christ by faith. Let us be united to Him by an imperishable love. Let us be bound to Him by good works. Let us earnestly pray that He in the person of the Spirit, may make our hearts His abiding place, and then all shall be well with us. "In you I am in Me."

THE PRAYER MEETING.

This is a very important topic, considering as it does a most precious and yet often unrealized and unappreciated Christian truth. If possible, get the pastor to open the discussion of the topic by a short explanatory address.
